

III EDITION PHOTO CONTEST

“TRANSFORMING SOCIAL REALITIES”

WOMEN: LEADING THE WAY FOR CHANGE

Movement for Peace -MPDL- launches the III Edition of the Photo Contest "Transforming Social Realities". Since its first edition in 2019, this contest has contributed to making visible the importance of citizen participation and social mobilization in the processes of change in our societies. The first edition focused on the value of voluntary action, while the second, marked by the Covid-19 health and social crisis, focused on expressions of solidarity and care.

This third edition, under the subtitle "Women: leading the way for change", hopes to reflect, through images and stories, the role of women in the processes of social change and the fight against sexist and patriarchal attitudes that still persist in our societies. For centuries, women participation has been invisible and relegated to the background. In the current context, world's efforts have focused on a single priority: defeating the virus, sometimes at the expense of other equally important and urgent global causes, such as climate change or gender equality. This is why, in this edition, the "Transforming Social Realities" Photo Contest puts the accent on THEM.

PARTICIPANTS

Any person from anywhere, without age limit can participate. Children and young people under the age of 18 should also provide the consent of parents or legal guardians (see section 2.4).

TOPIC

The III Edition of "Transforming Social Realities" aims to collect photographs that represent women's actions, individual or collective, that contribute to social change and the fight against machismo.

The photographs can reflect anything that the author believes contributes to the empowerment of women in society. The image should be accompanied by a short description of why she/he has chosen the photograph and what it represents. To guide your participation in the contest you can follow these questions:

- Which women around you have contributed to social change in their neighbourhood, town or city? In what way?
- What forms of citizen participation around the feminist movement (demonstrations, assemblies, meetings...) inspire you? How do you think they contribute to raising awareness in society?

- Who would you like to thank for their activism in the defense of women's rights?
- What kind of actions (small or large scale) do you think contribute to equality between women and men?
- What would you like to show as acts of sorority and support among women?

(In the web form you will be able to explain better the reason for your photograph).
